Captain Craig was born 24 October 1930 in Galveston, Texas. He graduated from the University of Houston in 1954 with a B.S. in Education and from the University of San Diego in 1969 with an M.S. Degree.

Captain Craig enlisted in the Naval Reserve in Houston, Texas in 1950 and entered active duty in 1954. Following tours of duty as a Hospital Corpsman at the Naval Hospital, Corpus Christi, Texas and aboard the USS Canisteo (AO-99) he graduated from the Officer Candidate School, Newport, Rhode Island, in 1960 and was commissioned an Ensign in the Medical Service Corps.

He served as Fiscal and Supply Officer at the Station Hospital, New London, Connecticut; Assistant Training Officer, Hospital Corps School, Great Lakes, Illinois; Administrative Officer, Naval Air Station, Hawaii; Training Officer, Naval Dental Center, San Diego, California; Administrative Officer, First Marine Aircraft Wing, Republic of Viet Nam; Operating Management Officer, Naval Hospital, Memphis, Tennessee; Training Officer, Hospital Corps School, Great Lakes, Illinois; Executive Assistant, Health Sciences Education and Training Command, Bethesda, Maryland; Executive Officer, Naval School of Health Sciences, Bethesda, Maryland; and Executive Assistant to the Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery for Professional Development, Washington, D.C. He was selected for his present rank in 1980 and assumed the duties as Officer in Charge, Naval School of Health Sciences Bethesda Detachment, Portsmouth, Virginia in September 1981.

Captain Craig holds a teaching certificate in the state of Texas. He is a member of several professional organizations.

His military awards include the Bronze Star with Combat "V", Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal with star, Good Conduct Medal with star, National Defense Service Medal with star, Vietnam Service Medal with FMF insignia and two stars.

Captain Craig is married to the former Patricia Lou Mills of Shaker Heights, Ohio. They have three children: Michael, Margaret and Michelle.

COMMANDER RUSSELL W. BARNHILL, MSC, USN

A former resident of Oklahoma, Commander Barnhill has served in the United States Navy for approximately 30 years.

Initially enlisting as a Recruit at age 18, Commander Barnhill, completed training and became an enlisted member of the Navy Hospital Corps in 1954, and served in the Naval Hospital, Mare Island, Vallejo, California; Staff of Commander Naval Forces Far East, Yokosuka, Japan; Station Hospital, NAS, Iwakuni, Japan; Naval Air Technical Training Center, Norman, Oklahoma; Naval Medical Administrative Technicians School (student), Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, Virginia; USS Tutuila (ARG-4); Naval Hospital, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; Naval Dispensary, Washington, D.C.; Naval Hospital, NNMCC, Bethesda, Maryland; and on board the frigate, USS John S. McCain (DL-3), where, in 1965, he was selected for a commission in the Medical Service Corps.

Subsequent to his commissioning as a Health Care Administrator (HCA) of the Medical Service Corps, Commander Barnhill served as Security Officer/Disaster Control Officer, Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, Virginia; Medical Administrative Officer, USS Forrestal (CVA-59); Medical Administrative Officer/Personnel Officer of the Station Hospital and Naval Station, Sangley Point, Republic of Philippines; Medical Administrative Officer, Naval Construction Battalion Center, Gulfport, Mississippi; Head, Medical Department/OIC, Branch Hospital, Naval Station, Adak, Alaska; Head, Medical Section/Instructor, Landing Force Training Command Pacific, Naval Amphibious Base Coronado, San Diego, California; and Medical Administrative Officer on Staff, Commander Naval Surface Force Pacific, NAB Coronado, San Diego, California.

Previous to his present assignment, Commander Barnhill served as Chief, Medical Operations in the Surgeons Office on the Unified Command staff of Commander in Chief Pacific, Camp H. M. Smith, Hawaii.

Commander Barnhill, in addition to undergraduate studies at various colleges and universities, attended the Naval Justice School, Newport, Rhode Island; attended the Armed Forces Staff College (1976), Norfolk, Virginia; and holds a MBA (1979) in Health Care Administration from National University, San Diego, California.

Commander Barnhill is a past member of various state regional health care associations and present member of the Association of Military Surgeons of the United States, the National Management Association, and a nominee to the American College of Hospital Administrators.

A recent resident of Hawaii, Commander Barnhill is married to the former Evelyn de Paula of Manila, Philippines.
